

ALLA CECA

Deep golden color with a persistent pale cream-colored foam. On the nose, herbal notes with light floral hints blend into a rich aroma of malted cereal. On the palate, from the first sip, a pleasant barley malt character stands out, balanced by the harmonious bitterness of hops that carries through to a long finish. It surprises and satisfies with its full body, given by its 5.5% alcohol content. A Czech-style lager with a Baladin-style nuance.
